Calling all theatre lovers! Step into the summer of 1936 in rural Ireland, where memory and myth intertwine. Dancing at Lughnasa follows the five Mundy sisters as they navigate love, loss, faith, and freedom during a season of profound change.

Told through the eyes of Michael, reflecting on one luminous childhood summer, the story is filled with music, laughter, longing, and the fierce bond of family. As the harvest festival of Lughnasa approaches, the sisters cling to fleeting moments of joy—dancing, dreaming, remembering—while the world around them quietly shifts.

Poetic, heart-stirring, and deeply human, Dancing at Lughnasa is a moving meditation on family, resilience, and the fragile beauty of ordinary days.

A powerful and lyrical theatrical experience presented by Valkyrie Theatre Company.

Karla Bonoff Live at the Fair Oaks Performing Arts Center. Few artists have left a deeper mark on the American singer-songwriter tradition than Karla Bonoff. A founding voice of the California folk-rock movement, Bonoff emerged from the legendary Los Angeles music scene of the 1970s alongside artists such as Linda Ronstadt, Jackson Browne, James Taylor, and the Eagles. Her songs — heartfelt, melodic, and emotionally precise — became classics recorded by some of the most iconic voices in popular music. Bonoff wrote enduring hits including “Someone to Lay Down Beside Me,” “All My Life,” “If He’s Ever Near,” and “Tell Me Why,” which were famously recorded by Linda Ronstadt and others.

Her own albums — including Karla Bonoff, Restless Nights, and Wild Heart of the Young — established her as one of the era’s most respected songwriters and performers. Known for her warm voice, intimate storytelling, and deeply personal lyrics, Bonoff’s live performances create a rare connection between artist and audience. Whether performing solo or with her longtime collaborators, she brings decades of music history to the stage with humility, humor, and grace.

This special evening at the Fair Oaks Performing Arts Center offers audiences the opportunity to experience a true master songwriter — whose music has quietly shaped generations of artists and continues to resonate today.

Steelin' Dan A Tribute to Steely Dan Live at the Fair Oaks Performing Arts Center
Steelin' Dan delivers a high-energy, note-for-note celebration of one of rock's most iconic and sophisticated bands — Steely Dan. Known for their complex arrangements, jazz-infused harmonies, and razor-sharp lyrics, Steely Dan created a catalog that helped define 1970s and '80s rock, producing timeless hits such as "Reelin' in the Years," "Do It Again," "Dirty Work," "Peg," "Hey Nineteen," and "Rikki Don't Lose That Number." Steelin' Dan brings these legendary songs to life with exceptional musicianship and attention to detail. Featuring seasoned professional players, the band faithfully recreates the precision, groove, and musical depth that made Steely Dan's recordings so distinctive — while delivering a dynamic live concert experience audiences love.

From smooth jazz-rock classics to driving guitar solos and lush vocal harmonies, Steelin' Dan captures the spirit, style, and sonic excellence of the original band, appealing equally to longtime fans and new listeners alike. Whether you grew up spinning Steely Dan vinyl or discovered their music through streaming playlists, this performance offers a chance to experience one of rock's greatest catalogs performed live — sophisticated, soulful, and unforgettable.

This special evening at the Fair Oaks Performing Arts Center offers audiences the opportunity to experience a true master songwriter — whose music has quietly shaped generations of artists and continues to resonate today.
